Chapter 1 by D

There is my portal to another world. It just appeared one afternoon as I was cleaning up the spilt milk from breakfast. I knew it was a portal as it had the word Portal written in neon above its door like arch. I slowly walked towards it.

Chapter 2 by Aaron Hartmann

Before I reached it a man walks through the portal and looks around.

His eyes drift on me and he asked me, "Are you Ivor Scarlett?" His voice sounded soft but firm.

My voice is scratchy, "Yeah-" I clear my throat, "Why?"

"My name is Maximilian Porcher, I have came from another dimension where we need your help." He sounds content but desperate.

"With what?" I ask.

"Please, no questions. We have very little time to get you to the station. Now please, follow me." I decide not to question and I follow him into the portal.
